

For acceptance to the Master of Environmental Planning program for the winter term 2020/21 at TU Berlin a proof of English language proficiency at level C1 must be provided. The following list specifies which kind of proofs will be accepted.

Please note that the proof of language proficiency has to be provided until the application deadline!

Test	C1 level (starting winter term 2020/21)
TOEFL® iBT	Min. 95 points
TOEFL® ITP	Min. 627 points
UNiCert®	Min. Level III
IELTS® Academic	Min. 7
Cambridge Exams	Cambridge English Proficiency/ Cambridge English Advanced
English language classes at ZEMS or another university	C1 class with proof of ECTS-points and “pass”
Language certificate of the DAAD	Indicating min. C1 in all sections
Successfully completed study program in English at a recognized university	Proof that English was language of instruction
Six months stay at a university studying in English	Proof of min. 30 ECTS and proof that English was language of instruction
High school certificate from an English or bilingual (English and other language) school	Proof that English was language of instruction
Abitur (German university-entrance diploma)	English ‘Leistungskurs’, min. 11/15 points