

For acceptance to the Master of Environmental Planning program at TU Berlin a proof of English language proficiency at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) must be provided. The following list specifies which kind of proofs will be accepted.

Please note that the proof of language proficiency has to be provided until the application deadline!

TOEFL iBT®	Min. 87 points
UNicert®	Min. II
IELTS®	Min. 6
FCE First Cambridge Certificate of English	Min. level C
ALTE	Min. level 3
TOEIC	Min. 785 points, min. 385 points in each section
English language classes at the CEF level B2 at the ZEMS or another university	Proof of ECTS-points and "pass"
Language certificate of the DAAD	Indicating min. b) in all sections
Successfully completed study program in English at a recognized university	Proof that English was language of instruction
Six months stay at a university studying in English	Proof of min. 15 ECTS and proof that English was language of instruction
High school certificate from an English or bilingual (English and other language) school	Proof that English was language of instruction